

Vergleich – Umfrage Comparison Survey

All of you have had a regular German class in the classroom with the teacher and have participated to some degree in the very different Internet-based program this year.

I am interested in your impressions of how the courses were different and would like to have you list a number of good and bad elements in each type of class. Your answers will help me prepare a paper for a conference presentation that I will make in October at the national meeting of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages in Salt Lake City.

Note!! It is very valuable to also receive answers from students who did not remain in the Internet-based class all year. Your perspective and opinions may very well be quite different from those of the students who are still participating in the class. So, please, if you are not currently active in the German program but started the year enrolled in the class, I would really like to have you send me some of your ideas and concerns also.

Please take some time and provide me with your honest answers.

You can write your answers and send them as an e-mail attachment or print out the survey and give it to me at school.

Please write below any additional comments you might want to make concerning the comparison of the two types of classes.

Perhaps you could state why you felt one type of class was better or worse for you.

Maybe you could say why you liked or disliked one type of class or the other.

If you did not continue in the class, perhaps you could tell me why you did not want to continue.

Do you think you might ever take an on-line course later in your schooling and why did you answer 'yes' or 'no' ?
